Jesus, we come

Irene Bom

G C G D7

Verse 1

G

Jesus, we come as little children

Am7

We see in you the Father's heart

G

You make the time, you make us welcome

Am7

You draw us close

G

into your loving arms

G C G D7

Verse 2

Jesus, we come, bringing our burdens

We find in you the rest we need

Humble in heart, ever so gentle,

You bind our wounds

and bless us with your peace

When Israel came out of Egypt (Psalm 114)

Irene Bom

(Capo 3)

- Verse 1
- A
- When Israel came out of Egypt
- E A
- Jacob from the land of foreign tongue
- A
- Judah became God's sanctuary
- E A
- and Israel became his dominion
- E A
- Israel became his dominion.
- Verse 2
- The Red Sea saw and retreated
 Jordan took to flight and ran away
 Mountains began to leap like rams and hills danced for joy like the spring lambs
 Hills danced for joy like the spring lambs.
- Verse 3
- O Rea Sea, why did you turn back?
 Jordan, tell me why you ran away.
 Mountains, why did you leap like rams?
 And hills, tell me why you were dancing
 hills, tell me why you were dancing
- Verse 4
- O tremble, earth, in God's presence
 Tremble when the God of Jacob comes
 Hard rock becomes a bubbling pool
 as God brings forth water from flint stone
 God brings forth water from flint stone
- Verse 5
- Sing glory to God the Father
 Glory to the Christ, his only Son
 Glory to God the Holy Spirit
 Glory, sing glory to God
 Glory, sing glory to God
